I wanted to give you feedback immediately because I was so impressed yesterday as well as I recall you saying you must do reflective thinking A.S.A.P. I really understood that you were speaking to me (as well as the rest of the audience)... I plan on continuing to use your techniques. You are a dynamic and motivational speaker. I was amazed to see that the day had flown by. You kept us interacting and involved. Great job, you have found your passion. You are undoubtedly one of the best speakers/presenters I've had the pleasure of witnessing in my career. It's very clear that you are indeed versed in the art of training and information delivery. Your message is a good one and you do an excellent job of conveying the information in an entertaining, passionate, and memorable way. - Jeffrey Gifford, Manager, Oklahoma Gas & Electric, Yukon, OK

Thank you for speaking to Lufthansa. It was great timing as I've been working on de-cluttering, organizing, and trying to focus on what's really important to me since the end of last year. Your presentation was very helpful in providing reasons to why we feel so stressed and time pressured. I intend to work on many things I've learned from you. Having you speak for 3 hours was a good start to helping everyone manage their time better. I would like to see our team be able to have a follow-up session. - Liz Gallagher, Field agent, Lufthansa, Chicago IL

You were the hit of our sales meeting in Orlando! Our group thoroughly enjoyed your presentation, and they gave you rave reviews on our meeting evaluation. Also, I have observed a number of your suggestions being put into use since the meeting. Thanks for a great job. Hope to sit in on another of your presentations. - Paul Lamoureux, Manager, Customer Relations, Gilbarco, Greensboro, NC
