Dear Jeff:

As chairman of the New Lawyer in Practice Committee of the Legal Economics section of the District of Columbia Bar, I am writing to express my deepest thanks for your recent attendance at our September meeting and your fine presentation on "Setting Up and Marketing a Law Practice." The members of our committee were most impressed with your thorough knowledge of the subject area and your excellent manner of presentation. I hope that you will be able to fit us on your very busy calendar next year, for a return visit.

With kindest regards, I am

Very truly yours,

Kenneth M. Trombly
