Jeff

Thank you so much for the lecture series on the Star Princess. I was only able to attend two ... but got a valuable thought or two out of each one. I am sorry I missed the last one. We were traveling with my wife and her five sisters and spouses so the logistics were a challenge sometimes.

I particularly appreciated the lesson to "look for chances to do one activity and cover more than one priority". It reinforces what I need to do in sharing success stories from my clients.

So, all positive feedback ... appreciate your efforts and sharing of your expertise.

Thank you,
